COMIC

The Sandi Nusantara comic originated from a series of studies conducted by researchers at the Bandung Fe Institute, particularly Hokky Situngkir. It was initially compiled into a sci-pop book titled Kode-Kode Nusantara and republished as Enigma Pusaka di Kepulauan Indonesia. However, while observing the booming webtoon trend a few years ago, the team featuring storyboard writer Riani Charlina and illustrator Kris Yunita was born to package the research into a visual story that was more communicative and capable of reaching a broader audience, especially the younger generation.

VTUBER POSTER

NusaVatra's videos is hosted by one of character from the Sandi Nusantara comic named Kiana Sarayu, familiarly known as Kyas. In the comic, Kyas is depicted as a member of a motorcycle gang, but after being recruited as the host of NusaVatra, she transforms into a beautiful princess. Meanwhile, Arinauli Masalina or Uli was quite bratty when she was young and was often told to take care of her opung's lapo on the shores of Lake Toba in the comic. Then, one day, after choking on a fishbone from a carp arsik dish, she was suddenly isekai'd into a virtual world. Her personality instantly shifted into a gentle, soft-spoken one, taking the stage name 'Arin' to stream live reviews of culinary spots and tourist destinations across Indonesia.

Gendra (Nagendra Aarya) and Juno (Arjuno Bayanaka) were initially boarding house neighbors, but somehow ended up stuck traveling together from city to city across Indonesia in the comic's story. Juno is an outgoing, super confident, and sometimes goofy guy—the exact opposite of the genius Gendra, who speaks formally and keeps a distance in his interactions with others. Both of them already have VTuber models, but they have not made their official debut to this day.
